

Close Protection Instructors Courses

This course is open to all executive protection professionals interested in learning the skills and practices necessary to serve the role of a protective operations detail leader. This is an excellent opportunity for both protection agents wishing to garner the skills to become a detail leader and corporate security professionals responsible for Executive protection operations for their company. Attendees are exposed to the logistical and administrative requirements in operating an on-going executive protection detail. It is important to realize the significance of every decision as it relates to their detail and how they ultimately affect the return on investment for their company.

There are three levels, which last ten days each

- Level 1 = Basic Instructor
- Level 2 = Intermediate Instructor
- Level 3 = Advanced Instructor

Some examples of modules:

- General CPO theory
- Duties and Responsibilities ICPTA Instructor
- ICPTA Close Quarter Combatives
- Law, Rules and Regulations
- Course Planning

